CHRISTIAN CITY YOUTH NABS THIRD NO. 1 POSITION ON TRAA INDIE SALES CHARTS

No Longer I* claims No. 1 on TRAA

As Christian City Youth storms up The Rock Across Australia (TRAA) chart with its latest radio single More Than, the group secures the number one position on TRAA's Independent Sales Chart with its album No Longer I. This is the group's third number one.

Christian City Youth commissioned Paul Mabury (The Jive Express, Rueben Morgan and Brooke Fraser) to produce No Longer I, recording the album at The Grove on the NSW Central Coast, the studios formerly owned by INXS and now owned by Mark and Darlene Zschech.

The new album features the band's characteristic driving guitars, combined with kicking rhythm and atmospheric keys, as well as crisp polished vocals stylistically similar to Coldplay and Gwen Stefani, with hints of Mae and early Delirious?.

Over the span of Christian City Youth's career, the band has garnered three number one albums, six Top 30 radio hits, plus an award for Australian Independent Artist of the Year (2003).

The Rock Across Australia is Australia's national Christian music charts. TRAA published its first charts in Feb 1999.
